

JavaScript Notes

Introduction - A programming language for the web.

Variables - Store values with const and let.

Data types - Include strings, numbers, and booleans.

Functions - Reusable blocks of code.

Arrays - Ordered collections of values.

Objects - Collections of named properties.

DOM - The browser document structure.

ES6 - Modern features including modules and arrow functions.